ASTORIA, OREGON, May 21, 1905.

Miss Esther Sparrow

Astoria, Oregon.

Dear Miss:

In behalf of the teachers of the Astoria High School, I have the pleasure of informing you that by close attention to work and earnest application during the past four years of your school life, you have reached that degree of excellence in scholarship, which fairly entitles you to the honor of being Valedictorian of the Class of '05.

We earnestly hope that, in the future, as in the past, you may continue to be a leader in all that tends toward the elevation of the human race, and the glory of God.

Extending to you the congratulations of the High School teachers, I am

Yours Truly
A. L. Clark

This is to certify that Miss Catherine has taught our school for two terms.
And has done it most satisfactorily.
There have been children from the first to the eighth grades. A class of five have taken the eighth grade examination passing high. "Three above ninety" Miss Larson in their accomplishment has proved herself possessed of true bearing patience and a high degree of patience. And we cheerfully recommend her to a position in any school.
